

Digital Marketer (m/f/x)

Are you a digital marketer and you...

- have 2-5 years of experience in digital marketing?
- speak Dutch or French as your native language, or have an advanced level of proficiency in at least one of these languages? Is English your second or third best language?
- are passionate about data, creativity, and possess strong analytical skills?
- love the diversity of working on strategy, optimising campaigns, and helping create a new award winning digital campaign?
- are able to translate digital marketing to plain English for the client to understand?
- know when and how to use different digital channels to make the project a success?
- handle stress the way Kim Kardashian handles a selfie, Lenny Kravitz plays the guitar or Ronaldo controls a football – like a pro?

Then we might want to meet up and talk about your future at Indiandribble.

When you join Indiandribble you're plunging into an entrepreneurial communication agency with a Brussels heart and a global view. Here we translate our client's briefings to concrete and applicable communication and connection tactics that we use as tools to create or build Communities, Content & Culture.

- you manage the media budget and other project-related expenditures.

But your job is not just limited to the above. You will also...

- become part of a team of incredible individuals that form our company.
- partake in company drinks, outings, dinners, trips and team buildings.
