

Senior Designer (m/f/x)

Are you a senior designer / creative and you...

- have a Bachelor's or Master's degree in graphic design and/or eager to translate your passion for all things visual into real life projects.
- have a love affair with InDesign, Photoshop, Illustrator, and an open relationship with the rest of the Adobe Creative Suite.
- have experience in print and/or digital media.
- have no problem switching between DTP and concept-driven work.
- have some experience managing or coaching junior designers.
- embrace last-minute deadlines as no other and thrive in a fast-paced environment where being a multitasker is the new Bitcoin.
- speak Dutch or French as your mother tongue (or mastering at least one of these like a pro) with English as your second or third best?

Then we might want to meet up and talk about your future at Indiandribble.

When you join Indiandribble you're plunging into an entrepreneurial communication agency with a Brussels heart and a global view. Here we translate our client's briefings to concrete and applicable communication and connection tactics that we use as tools to create or build Communities, Content & Culture.

Now as a senior designer at Indiandribble.

- You understand project briefs and work on a wide range of digital and print assignments.
- You have no problem switching between making brochures, books, and flyers or make a snappy GIF for our social clients.
- You have a need for detail and feel confident taking ownership of design assignments.
- You'll effectively manage your time and hit deadlines while working on multiple projects.
- You report directly to the Creative Director.

But your job is not just limited to the above. You will also...

- become part of a team of incredible individuals that form our company.
- partake in company drinks, outings, dinners, trips and team buildings.
- get an attractive salary package including meal vouchers (Sodexo), hospitalization insurance and smart mobility solutions.
- receive some time to give back... (Yes, I went there...). During your normal working hours, you can participate in a charity of your choice (do something you care about).
